This allowed for the creation of a new “physically inspired” animation system that gives players greater bodily expressiveness as they move in and out of the offside line, execute realistic-looking tackles and runs, and move with an unprecedented level of agility and speed. The athleticism you need to be a great player in FIFA 22 comes thanks to a fluid combination of careful visual attention to player animations and play-realistic physics. Note that some of the animation, environment, stadium and player models in the video are not found in the actual game. This is a concept video for EA DICE’s Future FIFA Game! It has a little bit of everything in it and shows you some of the many ways the game will react to your actions on the pitch! CONCEPT UPDATES Introducing Massive Changes to Player Movement FIFA 22 introduces “HyperMotion Technology,” which uses motion capture data collected from 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power gameplay. Motion capture technology in FIFA 22 allows for a new “physically inspired” animation system that gives players greater bodily expressiveness as they move in and out of the offside line, execute realistic-looking tackles and runs, and move with an unprecedented level of agility and speed. Stay tuned for more news about FIFA 22. SUMMON THE TEAM Choose your play style Whether you like to take charge or play it safe, FIFA 22 gives you the tools to command the pitch. Both the physical properties of the ball and your teammates’ reactions to your actions will dictate your success. The physical properties of the ball, such as weight, gravity and spin, offer you strategic options that will affect your passing, shooting, and dribbling. Adapting to ball dynamics Adapting to where the ball lands means being able to check your positioning on the pitch and making smart decisions about which pass to make. Choose between passing, shooting, or dribbling It’s up to you to determine whether it’s time to pass, shoot, or dribble. Pass with confidence, shoot on goal, or burst past defenders at the last moment. #YOURPLAYSTYLE
