and everything seems to be against you. With only two companions by your side, you must fight your way through an endless number of trials against the enemies of the human invaders. You will have to spend a certain amount of time every day at the Bat's Lair in order to find enough energy for the journey back home. The exit door is always guarded. Fortunately, you are not alone. Millions of moles and rats, which have been imprisoned by the humans during the invasion, are waiting to help you free their beloved Bat's Lair. All the moles and rats are trying to get out of the dungeon to the surface, but have no energy left for the journey. You can help them by guiding them to the exit door. However, the moles and rats cannot fight anything, and need your help in order to get out. That's where you come in. You will now assume the role of a bat. The password at the entrance to the Dungeon is: "Boo!"

What's new in Vengeful Bat Dungeon Crawler:

Hello. First time poster here but thank you to all the people that stop by to say hi. Forgive me if I ramble. So... Vengeful Bat Dungeon Crawler is a monster mob farm while I deal with myself. My goal is to have a good farm in late January/early February for my Fight Club/Pet Perks. My farm has reached 2500. My drop rate is poor and I'm usually getting 3-3.2 drops per hour, 4 if I'm really lucky. I'm running trying to get it over 5000 and trying to run around 1008 drops. I have gotten 7 to show up on my dungeon list though the first one has been on for over a week and a half. Also, I did at one point get a well higher than 4 drops per dungeon but my counts were all mostly low drops. I've been running a few of them each day. Vengeful Bat in Haunted Mansion (it dropped an elite I wanted) and I was lucky enough to 2-drop a Prismatic Clockwork Dragonbane. Just now restarted a tried a Bat and got 3-drops again. I have no idea why this happened though. My house sits at about 10k. I decided to start running more of my dungeons to see what happens. Soon after I did I started having issues. I saved after this. First clear was 2-drop. Then just as my drop rate was coming up I started getting odd drops again. First one I got 4-drops. Then several 2s. Once even a 1. Then all I'd get is 3-drops and 4's. I actually just ran this dungeon twice tonight so I've had 4-drops both times. I've tried a couple different dungeon mobs over time and I've only had the problem once. I'll try to do some more to the dungeons at hand to see if that will help but I've also tried using a lvl 25 downstairs and also tried a different pet and flan (not sure which one) and can only get 2-3s normally. That is why I'm thinking it may be a house problem. If anyone has had luck with this or has any ideas what it could be I'd be very appreciative. I'm fully prepared to scratch this farm until my crazy drop rate comes back to normal. Unfortunately the next clear I have is another dungeon I've decided to just not run. So I'm stuck between a rock and a hard place for now. So
