User Interface UI elements on the pitch have been refined and slimmed-down, thanks to feedback from players on FIFA Ultimate Team. Players may have issues with the interface, especially during the "On Pitch Tutorial" when the game is showing tutorials about real-life football on the pitch. TV and Match View A new Video Explainer makes it easier for players to understand the basics of gameplay. Skillshots displays the best moments on pitch in a split-screen. A new "Skillshot" button makes it easier for players to access the Skills screen. Player Details Players can improve their ratings by completing "Player ID Finder." Players can then display the player's full name, career achievements, international caps, FUT Team and position on the pitch. UI 2.0 The Virtual Progression panel (VP) has been relocated to the bottom-left corner of the screen, and players can gain Ultimate Team cards and 3D Rewards in FIFA Ultimate Team by purchasing and completing "The Journey." What's new in Fifa 22:

- Challenge Your Friends 2.0 - EA is introducing an entirely new way to challenge friends in FIFA 22. Challenge Friends is inspired by the in-game best friend rankings, where friends can keep in touch with head-to-heads, online challenges and weekly tournaments. If two friends team up or play one-on-one in challenge matches, they will earn silver, gold and platinum coins for the first time ever. The more coins they earn, the better these friend challenges are, granting them more rewards and perks in the in-game store. EA is also looking to add new rewards to the in-game store, so there will be new exclusive items for unique friend challenges.
- Dynamically - changing tactics and squad rotation based on the pitch state as well as player performance. Team 99 overall IQ is a new stat that illustrates each player's ball control and positioning with the ball.
- 11 Player Visual Details Movements for defencemen are more lifelike and finely tuned, and forwards, midfielders, and defenders have been given visual polish to create the most realistic on-pitch movement. This means that for the first time ever, players' movements during defensive and attacking plays have been assessed for the best on-field balance.
- Modified Baker Controls Defending with a man-in-front makes sense in many scenarios, especially against the playmaker, but the wrong balance and implementation has created a gap between modern defenders, while the no-man's land between two defenders and the open field player has become a killing zone.
- New Set Pieces FMNs have been sped up and are more direct to regain the numerical advantage. The host team's new set piece mechanics reward both teams with a goal if a cross over the crossbar is hit, ensuring modern tactics and defending are not always the best way to win.
- New Referee Decision Making Leading goalscorers must be made to respect the box, while the Revocable Free Kick System rewards dominant play and spurs the A.I. to raise the bar in defending and increasing the number of free kicks awarded on every tick of the clock. These new rules also give refs the ability to make crucial calls in ending the game.

- Dynamic Spread Set-up
