Please see < - The latest version of the firmware update is available. Please visit < - For more information about Intel-SA-00086, please visit < To add to the discussion of this thread, I have had the same problem with my PC that was HP's latest update of their BIOS. I went in a few days ago and read in the BIOS section of the release notes that a version that included updates for the Intel Management Engine was included with this release. I don't think I have ever seen a version of the BIOS which was affected by Intel's Management Engine before. I also have several versions of Intel (i7) CPUs. The newest one is Intel Core i7-8550U but I have two others that are Intel Core i7-7700HQ and Intel Core i7-6700HQ that were introduced in 2017 and 2016 respectively.
